Those Who Failed to Take Advantage of It Last Week Now Have Another Chance, and Those Contestants, Present and Prospective, Who Have Not As Yet Got Started, Can Easily Catch Up With the Procession—This Is Guaranteed to Be the Biggest and Best Offer of the Contest, and the Vote Schedule Will Take a Big Drop After November 5th.

GET STARTED AT ONCE

There Is An Unusually Good Opportunity In the Second District, as Only a Few Candidates From There Have Got Started so Far—The District Prizes Should Be a Cinch For Any Candidate From That District—Get Started To-Day.

The Biggest and Best Vote Offer of the contest has been extended until Tuesday, Nov. 5th. This will certainly be great news to many of the contestants in this great race. It will enable those who have just made up their minds to try for the prizes to get a good start in this great race, and will also help those contestants who were unable to get in their subscriptions before.

HERE IS THE OFFER.

Ten thousand extra votes will be given on every dollar's worth of subscriptions turned in before Nov. 5th. This means on both old and new subscriptions, so that if you find a subscription that is in arrears, get them to pay up all you can for votes are given on all subscriptions. Where you got 1,500 votes on a year's subscription before, you are able to get 21,000 votes during this offer, etc. This is certainly too good an opportunity to pass by without securing all the subscriptions possible. We guarantee that this is positively the very best offer of the contest, so gather in all the subscriptions possible. After Nov. 5th the vote schedule will take a drop.

QUESTION THE CONTEST DEPT.

Hundreds of people have read the rules and then read them again. There are still many things concerning the venture that they have failed to grasp to their complete satisfaction. The Campaign Manager cordially invites anyone who has the slightest interest in the affair to stop at the office and make all the inquiries they wish. If you are unable to call, phone or write for the information you desire.

STILL PLENTY OF TIME.

There has been no heavy voting in the contest up to date and only a few of the candidates have actually got started. Anyone with a very little effort can again lead in a short time.
The real winners may not even be nominated yet. So the wise ones who think they can pick the winners may have their "dope" badly upset before the race is over. Many new contestants will enter for some time to come.
The contest is barely started as yet, and anyone coming in now can soon be among the leaders by devoting a little systematic work to the proper sources where they are most likely to secure results. You might just as well be one of the lucky winners after the contest is over if you will only make a start.
A number of persons have written to the Contest Manager stating that they were willing to subscribe to The News, but desired to wait until someone from their section entered before handing in their subscription. Here is an opportunity for the ladies from all over Paris and Bourbon county. This Planning for Final Rally.

The Democrats of Bourbon county will have their final rally in this city on Saturday, November 2. The meeting will be held at the court house.
The local leaders are hoping for a rousing meeting as a closing feature of the campaign and an effort is being made to secure several prominent orators to make addresses to the voters. The Democrats are confident of carrying Bourbon county by the largest majority ever accorded a Presidential candidate and have perfected thorough organizations in every precinct in the county.

For Congress,
HON. J. CAMPBELL CANTRILL,

A Democratic Congress.

If the American people wish to give credit to whom credit is due, they ought to support the Democratic candidates for Congress, and thus place their stamp of approval on the record of the House of Representatives.

Since January 1, 1912, a Democratic House has passed tariff bills which would have reduced the high cost of living $650,000,000 a year.

Every bill which in the slightest degree provided relief for the masses was vetoed by the President.

The Farmers' Free List bill, passed by the House, would have saved the people $390,000,000 annually. This bill removed the duty from agricultural implements, of which $36,000,000 worth were exported and only $165,000,000 worth were imported during the last fiscal year; sewing machines, fence wire, bagging and cotton ties, lumber, shingles, meat, flour, salt, leather, shoes, etc.

Under our new tariff law a barrel of flour valued at $4 abroad is taxed 25 per cent. ad valorem at our port, or $1 on the barrel. This bill removed the entire tax.

Beef valued at $5.30 per 100 pounds abroad pay a tariff tax equivalent to 25.88 per cent, or $1.50 per 100 pounds. This bill proposed to remove this entire tax.

The Democratic wool bill proposed to reduce the average rate of duty on wool manufactures from 90.10 per cent to 48.36 per cent. President Taft's veto of this measure means that the American people will pay $50,000,000 more for their clothes this year than they would have if President Taft had signed it.

A wool hat valued at $1 abroad and taxed 78 cents upon its entry into the United States under the present tariff law, would have been taxed only 49 cents.

Flannel underwear valued at $27 per dozen suits is taxed under the present law at the equivalent ad valorem rate of about 106 per cent. The Democratic bill proposed to reduce this to 49 per cent. A suit of ready-made woolen clothing worth in Europe $10 is taxed under the present law at the equivalent ad valorem rate of 75 per cent, or $7.50. The Democratic bill proposed to reduce this tax from 75 to 49 per cent, and save the consumer $2.60 per suit.

The cotton bill reduced the duties on cotton manufactures from 48.12 per cent to 27.06 per cent, a reduction of the tariff burdens under this schedule from not less than $200,000,000 to about $112,000,000 for a year.

Men's cotton half hose valued at eighty cents per dozen pairs wholesale are taxed under the present law at the equivalent ad valorem rate of about 92 per cent. The Democratic cotton bill proposed to reduce this to 40 per cent.

It proposed to reduce the tax on cotton thread from an equivalent rate of 34 per cent to 15 per cent. A suit of ready-made cotton clothing valued at the foreign port at $6 is taxed under our present law 50 per cent ad valorem, or $3 a suit. This Democratic bill proposed to reduce this tax to 30 per cent and save the consumer $1.20 per suit.

The bill revising the metal schedule reduced the average rate of duty on the entire schedule from 33.35 per cent to 22.42 per cent. This revision, it is estimated, would have saved the American consumers in a twelve month period more than $80,000,000.

The revision of the chemical schedule would have effected a saving to American consumers of about $17,000,000 by reducing the price of all chemicals and at the same time the revenue to the Government would have been increased.

The House passed a bill providing for an excise tax on incomes, thereby transferring a considerable portion of the tax burdens to the wealthy, which are escaping their proper proportion.

The Excise Tax bill passed by the House provides for the extension of the Corporation Tax Law so as to include individuals, firms and copartnerships. It accomplishes the very desirable purpose of transferring tax burdens from those less able to carry them to the shoulders of the wealthy, who have heretofore escaped from a proper share of taxation for the support of the Government.

The present burden of indirect taxation falls upon people having incomes of less than $2,000 per year. A man whose net earnings amount to but $5,000 a year would under this bill pay no tax. A man earning $10,000 per year would pay nothing on the first $5,000 and $50 per year on the second $5,000.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For cough there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

Fritzi Scheff at Lexington.

It will be a new and novel Fritzi Scheff who will appear in "The Love Wager" at the Lexington Opera House Monday evening, October 28, for the popular prima donna this year has a role which requires her to start in the first act as a girl of 14, wearing short dresses that come only to the knees. The attractive picture thus presented when Miss Scheff comes on the stage as a hoyden with a rag doll, can better be imagined than described. Those who have seen her in the modish trained gowns of the Ru de la Paix or Fifth avenue, will not believe the transformation possible until they have actually witnessed the prima donna in her new opera.

As the course of the three acts permits her to grow up, Miss Scheff appears successively in gown more appropriate to young womanhood, and in the final act when her three younger sisters have been married and she has herself become the head of the family she wears a stunning white and gold gown which is one of the smartest of this year's frocks. All of Miss Scheff's gowns, by the way, are American made, and all of her seven costumes, including her hats, are from the same Fifth Avenue shop. This is a splendid tribute to home industry, for Miss Scheff goes abroad every summer and could no doubt pick up everything she desires in the way of clothes while doing Paris and London, but she prefers to have all of her clothes made in America.

The new opera, too, is made in America, even though it comes from Hungarian sources, for Miss Edith Ellis wrote the book, William Cary Duncan the lyrics, and the music is by the new composer, Charles J. Hambitzer, of Milwaukee. Mr. Hambitzer is of German and French descent but was born in Beloit, Wisconsin, was educated in Milwaukee, and proudly asserts that since he has never been abroad and never studied there, his music must be American.

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

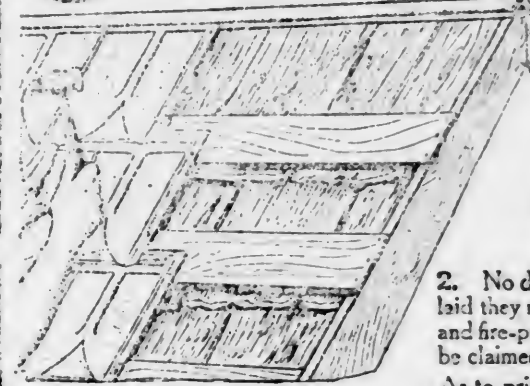

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c. in stamps—1,000 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

Mrs. ZUBERT AND BARE.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARGARET ZUBERT, of 323 S. Bentall Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the storek came to our house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worst of all nursed three children who had whooping cough. I hardly knew of the advent ten minutes before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butter-ball. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above all competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Paris citizen:Floyd Rankin, railroad man, 821 have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have done me so much good that I am pleased to advise others to take them. My kidneys were out of order and their action was irregular. The kidney secretions contained sediment and my back was lame. When I ing. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped my Campaign to Prevent Blindness.

Planning legislation for 1914 and deciding to prepare an exhibit for the Kentucky Child Welfare exhibit at Louisville, November 21 to 30, the Executive Committee of the Kentucky Society for the Prevention of Blindness met in Lexington Tuesday and after discussing plans of incorporation and hearing the financial report of the year, disposed of other business of more or less moment.An organized and persistent effort will be made to reduce the very high percentage of blindness in Kentucky, and the society will endeavor to interest everybody in this enabling work.When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible.

First To Pay Assessments.

The Kentucky State Democratic Committee Tuesday sent to the National Committee for use in the Wilson and Marshall campaign, $2,000, and claims to be the first State to pay its assessment, which was $25,000. It has sent $2,000 more than was asked.If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Plant a Tree.

The newspapers of this State have been asked to call special attention to the fact that Governor McCreary has designated November 13 as Arbor day, and everyone is asked to plant a tree on that day.From the fact that the county of Bourbon has been relieved of a greater part of its timber the importance of planting a tree is plain. Unless the people take a hand the land will soon be depleted of all timber and the beautiful county of Bourbon will look as barren as the Sahara. Remember Arbor Day and plant a tree.

Almost a Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W.
B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Texas, was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles.
Now he is sound and well and weighs 217 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.We will give One Hundred Dollars arrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's

Two Negroes Injured.

William and Ella Duxter, both negroes, were painfully injured in a railroad accident which occurred near Bedford Station. They were riding in a caboose on a freight train and were enroute to a construction camp where they were both employed as cooks. The train took siding at Bedford, about four miles from Paris, and another train coming from the rear struck the caboose. Will Duxter was badly burned about the arms and face by a falling stove, while the other escaped with a few slight bruises. They were taken to a Lexington hospital.

To Meet at Louisville.

The Fifty-Seventh Annual Session of the Kentucky State Medical Association will convene in Dr. Powell's First Christian Church in Louisville October 29, 30 and 31. Special rates on the railroads will be given. Special attention will be paid to Pellagra and Infantile Paralysis.

Dr. J. A. Witherspoon, of Nashville, President of the American Medical Association, will deliver the Annual Oration. The scientific exhibits will be especially interesting, as the Association has offered prizes for the best exhibits of educational value.

The Hat Question in 1790.

The Handel Festival was originally given in Westminster Abbey, and the official notice of 1790 announced that "no ladies will be admitted with hats, and they are particularly requested to come without feathers and very small hoops, if any." As ecclesiastical law demands that female worshippers shall cover their heads in church, this regulation was curiously anomalous. A suggestion in regard to ladies' headgear was also made by Sir Frederic Cowen in 1906, when he gave it as his opinion that the ladies might discover in their wardrobe some "extremely fascinating flat hats," which would not obstruct the view. The "fascinating flat hats" were, however, chiefly conspicuous by their absence, owing presumably (we write subject to feminine correction) to the fact that the flat hat was not among the fashions of that year.—London Globe.

Ohio Convict Captured in Paris.

After being at liberty a little over two months John Emerine, an escaped convict from the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus, was arrested in Winchester Monday night, brought to this city and returned to Columbus yesterday morning, where he will serve the remainder of a ten year sentence.

The arrest of Emerine was brought about by Patrolman Fred Link, of this city. The escaped convict had been working in the city as a telephone line-man for the Bourbon Home Telephone Company. He had been here about two weeks.

Monday evening Patrolman Link followed the man into the saloon of L. Saloshin on Seventh street, where he engaged him in conversation, at the same time studying his features closely, and soon came to the conclusion that the man tallied with a description he had received from the penitentiary authorities.

Having several pictures in his pocket he pulled them out when Emerine, who was looking over his shoulder, suddenly grabbed them from his hand and ran through them hastily. Handing them back the man excused himself and hurriedly left the saloon. In a few minutes he returned, conversed freely with a number of men in the saloon and left the place again, saying he would be back in a few minutes and when he did not return the officer instituted a search, but Emerine was nowhere to be found. Knowing the man would possibly escape on the fast southbound train which left here at 12 o'clock he hurried to the depot, but the train had departed.

Patrolman Link telephoned to Winchester and requested the police department to arrest three white men and two negroes who were hobnobbing their way. Officers Insko and Strode met the train and placed Emerine under arrest.

Patrolman Link went to Winchester Tuesday morning and returned with Emerine in the afternoon. The prisoner acknowledged he was the man wanted and for whom a reward of $50 was offered. He told the Paris officer after reaching here Tuesday that one of the men in company with him on the train was an ex-convict, by the name of Doyle, who had escaped with him from the penitentiary, but through a mistake of the Winchester officials he was released. Robert I. Miles, superintendent of the Bertillon department of the prison came to Paris Wednesday night and returned to Columbus with the prisoner. According to the Columbus official he is one of the cleverest crooks in the country and when he made his escape, aided four others, among them being the man named Doyle.

Emerine was sent up from Piqua county, Ohio, in September, 1909, to serve a ten year sentence for burglary, of which he had served four years. He escaped from the penitentiary on August 18, 1912, and has since been in several large cities. He returned to Ohio without requisition papers.

Emerine, who was known in prison as No. 38813, told Patrolman Link of his escape from the penitentiary which was accomplished by dropping over the prison wall while he, with several others, were painting a roof of the prison. One of his confederates fractured his skull from the fall, but the others were successful in making their escape in spite of the fact that they were showered with bullets. While here Emerine went under the name of J. A. Henry and boarded with Mrs. A. C. Erwin on High street. He claimed to have some money due him from the telephone company where he was employed and requested Patrolman Link to collect the amount and pay his board at Mrs. Erwin's.

The prisoner said he was willing to return to Columbus and finish his time as he had tired of roaming over the country dodging the police, and that while he hoped to escape detection here he knew his capture would be effected sooner or later.

The reward offered by the State of Ohio for the capture of Emerine was paid Patrolman Link by Mr. Miles yesterday morning, a part of which will be paid to the Winchester police.

MILLER & BEST.

The most notable event of the season was the marriage of Miss Myra Booth to Mr. Mackey Cole Grimes at the Christian church at eight o'clock Wednesday evening. On account of the prominence of the parties this event has been looked forward to in society circles since the announcement of their engagement.

The audience began assembling early and by the appointed time all of the available space in the church was occupied. The front of the church was hanked with ferns and potted plants. Miss Alma Duke Jones, who was handsomely gowned in white chiffon over blue charmouse presided at the organ, rendering several beautiful and classical selections while the audience was assembling.

Miss Dottie Harris, of London, Ky., who was beautifully attired in lace over pink charmouse, rendered two beautiful vocal solos. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus.

First came the ushers, Messrs. Hulin Kemper and Allen Ingels on the left, Glenn Shanklin and A. S. Miller on right aisle, then the dame of honor, Mrs. A. S. Miller, handsomely attired in bronze charmouse with trimmings of Spanish lace and crystal, carrying a bouquet of pink rosebuds. She was followed by the bride on the arm of her maid, Miss Eldiva Saunders, of Flemingsburg, who wore a gown of beaded tunic over pink charmouse and carrying a bouquet of pink rosebuds, while the bride was exquisitely gowned in crepe de meteor over charmouse with pearl trimmings and veil, carrying a bouquet of bride's roses tied with tulle.

Mr. Grimes came down the right aisle on the arm of his brother, Dr. Joe Grimes, of Cincinnati. The whole formed a beautiful group at the altar, where they were met by Dr. C. C. Fisher, of M. F. C., who in a beautiful and impressive ceremony pronounced the words that made this happy couple one for life. Mr. and Mrs. Grimes left immediately after the ceremony for Lexington, from which point they

GRAND.

The doors of the Paris Grand will be thrown open Saturday night to the public in order that they might witness two of the greatest western pictures ever made. These two pictures, "Blazing the Trail" and "Post Telegrapher" are from the studio of the famous "101" Bison Co., and depict the troubles the early frontiers had in traveling and homesteading. In making these pictures great care has been taken in training the animals, actors and Indians, as real Indians are used only in the "101" Bison pictures. Both pictures are feature subjects and have been treated as such. There are two reels to each picture, making a show of four feature pictures for the night's entertainment. Two shows will be given, doors opening at 7 o'clock.

Supplemental Registration.

Every Democrat who failed to register on the regular registration day and who was prevented from doing so by reason of his absence from the city or who was detained at home by illness in his family during the hours for registration on the regular day should bear in mind that October 28, 29, and 30 are the days fixed by law for the supplemental registration. Such registration must be before County Clerk Pearce Patton at his office in the court house and the person so doing must make affidavit that he was prevented from voting on the regular day by a legal reason. Democrats who failed to get a certificate for any of the above reasons should go early on the supplemental registration days and make their legal registration before they will be entitled to a vote in the regular election on November 5.

Farmer Kicked in Head.

Mr. Charles Squires, a well known farmer residing near Little Rock, this county, was kicked in the head by a horse he was driving, and seriously injured. The accident occurred when he was returning home and while he was alighting from the buggy. A painful scalp wound was inflicted besides an injury to the temple and a gash cut in his ear. It was at first thought he was seriously injured and a physician was hastily summoned, and his injuries received attention.

Greek Goes to Fight for Country.

Louis Cocotinos, a Greek employed by James Pappas at the Paris Restaurant, left yesterday for Greece, where he expects to take up arms for his country in the Balkan war. Cocotinos has been in Paris about two months and inspired by the patriotism for his country he decided to return with the large number of Greeks in America to enlist in the army in defense of his native land. He will go to New York and embark. His home is at Domianois, Greece, and he has been in America about four years.

will make a tour of the Eastern cities. Miss Booth is the only daughter of Mr. J. D. Booth and is a beautiful and attractive young lady with many accomplishments, graduating from the literary and musical departments of the M. F. C., afterwards attending the Randolph-Macon College in Virginia.

Mr. Grimes is one of the most prominent young business men in Central Kentucky, being an extensive grain dealer and proprietor of the Millersburg Roller Mills at this place.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—W. H. Miller, of Mt. Sterling sold his farm of about 70 acres near that city to Robert Howell, of Montgomery, at $145 per acre.

—Carlisle will have an agricultural fair tomorrow. Hundreds of farmers have entered their products and it promises to be one of the biggest agricultural events ever held in that city.

—J. S. Renick, of Clark county Wednesday sold his farm of 444 acres on the Van Meter pike about 4 miles from Winchester to Ben D. Goff at $170.70 per acre. The place was known as the Van Meter farm. With the purchase of this land Mr. Goff now owns more than 2,000 acres. He is also the youngest farmer in the State.

—The Winchester Democrat says: "Mr. R. N. Ratliff, who purchased the fine farm of Mr. J. B. Martin on the Paris road a few days ago, has announced that he will turn it into a mule raising establishment on a large scale. There are about 145 acres in the tract besides a beautiful residence. Mr. Ratliff is one of the best as well as the largest mule buyers in the country."

—The sale of blooded and harness stock held in Mt. Sterling recently by R. B. Young and others, was attended by only a small crowd and bidding was anything but active. All the stock brought low prices. The highest price of the day was $225, which was paid by A. M. Land, of Nicholasville, for Golden Princess, a two year old mare sired by Golden King 2359, out of Montgomery Princess by Bourbon Chief 976. This mare will be prepared for the show rings next year and campaigned in Kentucky. During the day 26 head were sold for a total of $2,220.50, or an average of $85.41.

—A recent bulletin from the State University Experiment Station at Lexington shows that the largest average yield of corn in the State was in Mason county, with forty-four bushels per acre. The average yield of the State is twenty-five bushels. Commissioner of Agriculture Newman has asked the Mason County Superintendent of Schools, Miss Jessie Yancey, to have the boys of the Mason County Corn Club furnish him with seed corn, for which he will pay a fancy price when it meets the standard of perfection, 94 per cent, germination. The boys are now busy saving their corn to win this fancy price.

—One of the largest crowds ever assembled in Mt. Sterling attended court there Monday. Trade in the mercantile lines was good. There was a large amount of stock of all kinds but the demand for mules, horses and suckling mules were on the market from common to good and more than a thousand were offered for sale. From five to six thousand cattle on the market. Best steers sold at 6 1-4 cents, yearlings at 5 3-4 cents, cows 3 1-2 to 4 1-2 cents, bulls 4 to 4 3-4 cents. Arch Prewitt sold twenty 600 pound steers to J. H. Bell, of Bourbon, at 4 3-4 cents. Chas. B. Duff sold twenty-five 850 pound steers to J. W. Young, of Bourbon, at 6 cents.

—At the dispersal sale of W. L. Scott & Son, at Louisville, of 100 head of Jersey cattle, a large crowd of buyers were present from surrounding States. The average ran from $50 to $900, the bull, Morocco's Champion, bringing $900, the highest price, purchased by E. H. Ware, of Douglass, Ill. The cow, Moselle, brought $640, from Farm, Lexington. Morocco's Pet, a cow, sold to Dr. Wedekir, at Louisville, for $620.

—H. Weissenger & Son, of Shelbyville, have shipped their two great five-gaited saddle horses, His Eminence and Nazimova, to the St. Louis horse show where they have been entered in several saddle horse stakes.

Missionary Institute Held Tuesday.

The Missionary Institute of the Frankfort District held an all day meeting Tuesday at the Methodist church. There were about seventy-five visitors from Frankfort, Georgetown, Lexington, Cynthiana, Carlisle and Millersburg, and much interest was taken in the meeting, which opened Monday night.

The Tuesday morning session was opened at 9 o'clock with devotional exercises in charge of Mrs. Chappell, and with Mrs. Hughes, district secretary, of Richmond, presiding. An institute on children's work was presented by Miss Stella Lewis, of Lexington and Miss Campbell, of Nicholasville, conducted the institute on young people's work.

All the topics on the program were presented as questions by the leaders, and were answered by the representatives of the different auxiliaries. "A Discussion of Funds" was assigned to Miss Julia Durham, of Danville. "The Work of Prayer" was explained and its importance emphasized by Mrs. Chappell of Nashville. Rev. Harris, pastor of the Epworth church in Lexington; Elder J. T. Sharrard, of Paris; Prof. C. C. Fisher, of Millersburg; Rev. J. D. Redd of Millersburg; Mrs. Orie Lebus, of Cynthiana; Mrs. Arthur Best, of Millersburg, and Miss Scott, of the Deaconess Order, Lexington, were among the visitors introduced. At noon lunch was served. The program was resumed at one o'clock. An interchange of methods and ideas regarding auxiliary societies was participated in by members from different places. A report from the Millersburg young ladies auxiliary was very encouraging.

Institutes on "Christian Stewardship" by Mrs. Chappell, "Opportunity and Influence of the Press Superintendent" by Mrs. Sistrunk, of Lexington, occupied the afternoon, and discussion of these subjects brought out many points of interest.

Helen Hardie Yun, the little nine year old daughter of Baron Yun, of the Methodist school in Korea, was introduced by Prof. Fisher, of M. F. C., where she is to remain eleven years longer to be educated. The evening meeting was addressed by Mrs. Chappell, the address closing a successful institute.

Cumberland to Improve Paris Plant.

As an evidence of the rapid growth of the telephone industry in this city and with the view of improving the plant to a point of efficiency second to none in the State of Kentucky or in the South, the Cumberland Telephone Company plans to expend a sum in the neighborhood of $50,000 upon construction work in Paris and the installation of a new equipment that will furnish a service without an equal.

According to a report that is in circulation and which is based upon the best authority, the plans for the proposed improvements in Paris have been approved by the Nashville office of the company, and the above sum set aside for that purpose.

From the most reliable information obtainable the present plant of the company here is in such a congested condition that it is almost impossible to accommodate additional patrons, so rapid has been the growth of the city in the last few years, bringing with it a demand for telephone service and an insufficient number of wires it is calculated will work a hardship toward the advance of the company.

It is the plan to install a new cable service throughout the city, and a movement should be started at once to have all the cables placed underground. In addition to this there will be vast improvements in the county lines and this department improved in the most minute detail. The installation of a switchboard capable of accommodating twice the number of phones as those now in service, and to meet the possible future demands, will be another improvement.

It has not been definitely decided as to the nature of the service to be installed and the latest improved central exchange system, it is said is being considered. This system is being installed in all of the offices of the company in the South and in the larger cities in the North. In all cases it has given the greatest satisfaction, and it is probable one of the latest improved plants will be put into service here.

At present the company has not decided upon a location from the fact that it has a lease upon the building at the corner of Main and Fourth streets for a period of five years. This matter however will be settled in the near future.

Representatives of the Cumberland Company are expected in the city within the next few weeks to begin the work of outlining the plans for the reconstruction of the plant and the re-wiring of the town. Several weeks will be consumed in making the plans when active work will begin, which will be entirely in the hands of the officials in the Nashville office, but it is understood, the work will be rushed to an early completion.

Killed by Train.

T. F. Haywood, resident engineer, met instant death Wednesday morning at Grant's tunnel, a short distance from Covington, when he stepped in front of fast Southbound passenger train No. 33. Haywood was in charge of the second track construction work at this section of the road.

The passenger train was in charge of Conductor Everett Sorrell and Engineer W. S. Lane. According to the statement of Engineer Lane, he saw Haywood on the second track making noise as the train approached, he walked directly in front of the fast moving locomotive, apparently without noting its approach.

The body was picked up and sent to Covington on a northbound train where it was prepared for burial and Wednesday night the remains were sent from Covington over the C. & O. to his home in Trenton, S. C. Haywood was well known among the members of the engineering corps stationed in Paris, and had been here on several occasions.

Plant a Tree.

The newspapers of this State have been asked to call special attention to the fact that Governor McCreary has designated November 13 as Arbor day, and everyone is asked to plant a tree on that day.

From the fact that the county of Bourbon has been relieved of a greater part of its timber the importance of planting a tree is plain. Unless the people take a hand the land will soon be depleted of all timber and the beautiful county of Bourbon will look as barren as the Sahara. Remember Arbor Day and plant a tree.

AMUSEMENTS.

COLUMBIA.

Three excellent pictures will be offered at the Columbia today, any of which is a feature. "Brothers Under the Skin," "Ostler Joe," and "Pleasures of Camping" will compose the program.

ALAMO.

"The Siege of Petersburg," a thrilling tale of the civil war will be the feature picture at the Alamo Theatre this afternoon and evening. The story is of a Southern girl engaged to a lieutenant in the Confederate army but who falls in love with a young Southerner who is kept out of the war for the time being by his crippled sister. Later he joins the army and at Appomattox saves the life of the man who is engaged to the woman he loves. Later at Petersburg, when the Confederates are engaged in tunneling a mine, the girl's real lover is at a post which means certain death and the lieutenant knowing of the existing love forces an order and takes his place, meeting his death. The love story is nicely interwoven and the two reels are full of action and interest, stamping it as one of the best war stories ever produced.

Carpets and Rugs.

Parisians to Attend "The Love Wager."

K. S. Porter, agent in Paris for the Lexington Opera House, is arranging for a large number of Parisians to see the charming prima donna, Miss Fritz Scheff, in her new opera, "The Love Wager," at the Lexington Opera House on Monday, October 2. Mr. Porter would like to have the name of every person in Paris who intends to attend this excellent performance, and he will take pleasure in arranging tickets. Great interest is taken in the appearance of Miss Scheff in Lexington as in private life she is the wife of former Parisian John Fox, Jr., the noted author and playwright. Mr. Fox and his wife were in Paris recently, attending the funeral of Mr. Fox's father, John Fox, Sr. An extended notice of Miss Scheff's new opera will be found in another column in this issue.

Gets Custody of Grandson.

Amanda Grav, colored, was granted the custody of her grandson, Edgar French, a twelve year old colored boy in the county court before Judge L. J. Fretwell, Wednesday. The case was the result of habeas corpus proceedings instituted to recover the child from the charge of Dave January, colored of this city, and the case occupied two days in court. James French, colored, of Chicago, who died several months ago was buried in this city and January assumed the custody of the child. According to the testimony introduced in court it was the father's wish that the boy be left in charge of his grandmother. January refused to relinquish the child which resulted in a writ of habeas corpus being issued. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney P. A. Thompson, while Attorney Wm. Grannan conducted the case for the defendant.

IN SWEET FRAGRANCE

MOURNERS LAID FLOWERS ON TOMB OF CONVICT.

But in Life the Man Who Had Transgressed and Paid the Penalty Went His Lonely Way
Without Sympathy.

"He tramped his way into this country and finally into this neighborhood. You know his history since he has been here. He has never been able to keep a place and, so far as I can learn, has never had a complaint against him. I have heard many of you talk about him in the last 24 hours, and this is what you make him out: a faithful, capable workman; industrious, honest, reliable in all things, gentle to women and little children, kind to dumb animals, untiring in self-sacrifice for the sick and helpless. In addition, I know him to have been a God-fearing, repentant man.

"It was not much he asked of this community—only the right to live by honest, hard work, and a little—a very little—human companionship. We denied him both! We saw a struggling soul go down in dumb agony and we did not lift a hand to save him. A friendly greeting, a hearty handshake, a word of neighborly interest would have been to this man as cold water in a thirsty land. But we did not give them. He asked us for bread and we gave him a stone.

"I asked if he was afraid to die. No, he said, he did not believe God would be as hard on him as his fellow men had been. I think he was right. He said: 'If there had only been somebody that I could have told it would have been different; but there was no man that would know me; refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.' Oh, brethren, brethren, may God forgive us!"

The old minister had been speaking in an impassioned tone. He stopped suddenly. Then, there being nothing more to say, he raised his hands in benediction, repeating with gentle emphasis which might have passed for irony, but probably was only force of habit:

"And now may the peace of God, that passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

Ma' Liza had been playing beside the grave, sticking her alder bush into the soft mold and pulling it out again to find a better place. As she felt the tug of her mother's hand she stuck it in firmly and said, her sweet, childish treble smiting the stillness: "I give my flowers to Zebbie!"

Mrs. Freno caught her to her breast with a sob, and laid her branch beside it. The act was infectious. As by one impulse the women came and cast their flowers upon the mound with gentle hands and falling tears. And when the procession moved from the cemetery Zeb Horn's grave was a mass of snowy, fragrant blossoms.

But the man was dead!—From Caroline Abbot Stanley's "The Master of the Oaks."

Oil-Burning Engines.

Dr. Rudolph Diesel of Munich lectured at the Institute of Mechanical Engineers in London recently, on the industrial importance of the Diesel oil engine of which he is the inventor. He declared that by this engine the monopoly of coal had been broken and that the problem of using liquid fuel for power production in its simplest and most general form had been solved. It could be used with all natural liquid fuels. What the steam engine and gas engine were for coal it was for liquid, but was much simpler and more economical. Researches, he added, had shown that there was probably as much liquid fuel as coal in the globe. New petroleum sources, said Dr. Diesel, were continually being developed; new oil districts were being discovered. The world's production of crude oil had increased three and a half times as quickly as the production of coal and the ratio of increase was getting steadily higher. Forty per cent of the present production of mineral oil, he added, was already sufficient to supply the whole naval and mercantile fleet of the world with power if they worked it by the Diesel engines.

Testing the Fly Line.

"One thing about a flat that summer tenants will never take an agent's word for is the fly line," said a Philadelphia real estate agent. "They want to find that out for themselves and resort to various subtle schemes. One woman to whom I showed a flat Tuesday came back on Wednesday to look at it again, and confronted me in triumph when she found several flies roosting on the window sill.

"I felt that you were mistaken when you told me yesterday that this apartment was above the fly line," she said, "so I rubbed a chocolate cream on the sill and came back today on purpose to see if the flies had traveled this high."

"Of course they had. With a chocolate cream for a magnet a fly would crawl to the top of the City Hall tower."—Philadelphia Record.

Not Loaded.

"So those two lovely men were in love with you?"

"Yes."

"And they really fought a duel about you?"

"Y-yes."

"Swords or pistols?"

"P-pistols!"

"How exciting! Were they loaded?"

"No. Both of 'em were sober."

DETAILS OF AUTOMOBILE AND PRIZE CAMPAIGN.

THE CAPITAL PRIZE.

The Grand or Capital Prize offered in this great campaign is a handsome $910 Flanders touring car—one of the best known and most reliable cars in the country. It was purchased especially for this great campaign from the Bourbon Garage and is now on display. It is a machine of superb mechanical qualities and will excite the greatest interest in every locality where the joy of automobilism is known. The desire is intense in every wide awake person to own a beautiful car that means so much personal joy and for the entertainment of family and friends. The publisher of the Bourbon News takes the greatest pleasure in being able to put such a machine in the possession of some popular person in this section as a reward for their industrious efforts during the next few weeks.

THE DISTRICT PRIZES.

The District Prizes consist of beautiful Diamond Rings and handsome Elgin Watches. They were purchased especially for this great campaign from the well known and reliable firm of Shire & Fithian.

The Diamond Rings are indeed sparkling gems of beauty and the winner of any one of them may well feel proud of them. They are perfect stones and the reputation of the above firm stand back of them.

There are two 15 jeweled Elgin Watches and two 7 jeweled Elgin Watches. The name of the Elgin Watch is so well known as a most reliable timekeeper that it is hardly necessary to give a further description of them. All of the district prizes will be on display in the window of the jewelry store of Shire & Fithian.

WHO MAY ENTER.

Any person, lady or gentleman, boy or girl, living in this section of Kentucky may enter this campaign. It costs nothing to enter or try for any of the prizes. They do not have to be subscribers to the Bourbon News in order to enter; all that is necessary is to fill out the nomination blank with your name or the name of the person you wish to enter, and bring or send it to the Campaign Dept., The Bourbon News, Paris, Ky. The nomination blank will count 1,000 votes for the party so nominated. Votes may be clipped from the paper or secured on subscriptions. The votes which appear in the News are good for 25 votes each if voted before the date of expiration printed on the coupon. Those issued on subscriptions as shown in another part of this announcement. Under the campaign arrangement, you only have to compete against the candidates in your own district to secure any of the district prizes. Candidates and their friends may secure votes and subscriptions anywhere.

HOW TO ENTER.

Fill out the nomination blank found elsewhere in this issue and send it to the Campaign Dept., The Bourbon News. Full details of the campaign and printed matter for use in getting your campaign started will be sent you.

TERRITORY OF THE CONTEST.

District No. 1—Includes all of the city of Paris.
District No. 2—Includes all of Bourbon county outside of the city of Paris and also parts of other counties adjoining.

HOW PRIZES WILL BE DISTRIBUTED.

The Grand prize—the beautiful $910 Flanders Touring Car—will be awarded to the candidate who secures the highest vote polled in the entire campaign.

The candidate standing highest in each of the two districts after the Grand prize has been awarded, will have the choice of either a lady's or gentleman's Diamond Ring.

The candidate standing second highest in each of the two districts after the grand prize has been awarded will also have the choice of another lady's or gentleman's Diamond Ring.

The candidate standing third in each of the two districts after the grand prize has been awarded will be given the choice of a lady's or gentleman's 15 jeweled Elgin Watch.

The candidate standing fourth in each of the two districts after the grand prize has been awarded will have the choice of a lady's or gentleman's 7 jeweled Elgin watch.

All of the district prizes may be seen on display at the jewelry store of Shire & Fithian. Candidates and their friends are invited to call and inspect them.

RULES OF THE CONTEST.

The campaign is open to every white person possessing good character, residing within the limits of the territory of the contest.

Candidates and their friends may secure subscriptions anywhere. No special ballots will be issued for less than two dollars.

Candidates must be entered from the district in which they reside, and cannot move from one district to the other and retain the votes to their credit in the former district.

The campaign manager reserves the right to reject any candidate and to pass final judgment on any question which may arise.

Votes once issued cannot be changed to count for another candidate. Candidates compete only against the contestants living in the same district as themselves for the district prizes.

The campaign manager reserves the right to make any changes or alterations in the rules and conditions that may be necessary to the best interests of the contest. No promise, or agreement, either written or verbal, made by agents, solicitors or representatives, other than those published in the Bourbon News will be recognized.

The rules and conditions given above are to govern the contest of The News and all candidates entering the contest agree to be governed by the rules and conditions as above set forth.

Until further notice no contestant will be allowed to poll more than a sufficient number of votes to place their standing 5,000 votes in advance of the leader of the preceding issue. For instance, if A had 1,000 votes in today's issue, you would be allowed enough to place your standing 6,000 votes in the next issue. As many subscriptions as you wish may be turned in and vote ballots will be issued and returned to you.

For rules and further details see page 7.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED.

With every subscription to The Bourbon News (when it is asked for) is given a ballot good for a certain number of votes, according to the length of the subscription. These ballots may be held as long as desired and voted at any time up to the last day of the contest. In fact, it is well to hold back a large per cent of your vote ballots, as then no one knows how many votes you have, and are less likely to have someone who knows that you have turned in all of your subscriptions, and had the vote published, to step in the last moment and get the prize you desire. If you hold back part of your ballots no one knows, not even the contest department, for no record is kept of vote ballots issued to you, how many votes you have.

"This Is Your Show."

The late Sir George White, defender of Ladysmith, was a strong enough man to take responsibility for failure; he was a strong enough man, too, to give credit to his subordinates for good work done. The first time I saw him was at Elandslaagte. The battle was well in progress. General French was elaborating one of the most brilliant affairs of the South African war.
Late in the afternoon Sir George White and his staff rode on the battlefield, and had not been there five minutes before a shell fired from one of the Maxim-Nordenfietz which the Boers captured from Jamieson at the time of the raid, but which were destined by nightfall to be in our hands, plowed up the ground within a few yards of his horse. Almost simultaneously French hurried up and drew rein before the chief to surrender command. "No you carry on," said Sir George, "this is your show."—Lon-

ROOSEVELT BAIT FOR SUFFRAGISTS

Third Term Candidate Was Consistently Their Enemy Till He Needed Their Votes.

COULD HAVE CARRIED OHIO.

But Big Bull Moose Took to the Vermont Woods—Noted Woman Exposes His Change of Front.

BY IDA HUSTED HARPER.

The Progressive party had its first opportunity to show its loyalty to the woman suffrage plank in its platform when the vote was taken in Ohio on a new constitution. Forty-two amendments were on the ballot, and all were adopted except the one for woman suffrage!

Ohio is one of the "banner" Progressive states, and Mr. Roosevelt expects to secure its electoral vote. In order to do this a plurality of the electors must be Progressives, and they could therefore have easily carried the suffrage amendment if all the others had voted against it, as the vote on the constitution was very light, only a few hundred thousand out of more than a million who were eligible. Did he issue any orders to this effect? Did he say to his followers: "Now, here is our first chance to show the women that we mean business. Of course if we win in November we will give the franchise to all in the United States, but just now we can make good by giving it to those in Ohio, so let every Progressive vote for the woman suffrage amendment?" Did he do this?
On the contrary, he completely ignored the matter, although he passed through Ohio the very day of the election.

A few days before, at St. Johnsbury, Vt., Mr. Roosevelt had devoted a large part of his speech to showing how strongly he believed in the ballot for women and how anxious he was for them to get it. The question was not an issue there or likely to be, but it was a vital issue in Ohio, to be settled in four days, and yet not by spoken or written word did he show to the people of Ohio that he knew of its existence.

Two days after the Progressive party in Ohio permitted the defeat of this amendment its state convention met.
If any women were elected delegates the press dispatches failed to mention it, and in the platform a woman suffrage plank was conspicuous by its absence. "The Progressive party pledges itself to the task of securing equal suffrage to men and women alike," says its national platform, and Ohio has just given the first example of the way it apparently means to keep that pledge.

In Mr. Roosevelt's second term the suffragists determined to make every possible effort to secure an indorsement from him. As Miss Susan B. Anthony's most eloquent letters to him received no answer, she went in person to see him in November, 1905, just four months before her death. With all her powers of persuasion she pleaded with him to recommend in his forthcoming message some recognition of woman's claim to a voice in the government.
Laying her hand on his arm, she looked up into his face and said, "I beg of you to be the emancipator of woman as Lincoln was the emancipator of the slave." He was not resembling Lincoln so much in those days as he is at present, and he remained totally unmoved by her appeals.

Scant Courtesy at White House.

Shortly before he left the White House several officers of the National Suffrage association, realizing his great influence on public opinion, made one last effort to have him speak a favorable word. He came into the outside lobby of the executive office, required them to state their business before the crowd waiting to see him and would hardly give them a chance to speak, but kept saying, "Go and get another state." He shrugged his shoulders and turned on his heel, and then they said,
"If we will get up a petition of a million names will that influence you?"
"No," he replied, "not one particle."

That was in 1909. The next year a letter from him was read at an anti-suffrage meeting in the Berkeley theater, New York, in which he said: "I am very tepid on woman suffrage."

The cause of woman's enfranchise-ment has no more implacable enemy than the Outlook, and Mr. Roosevelt is on the editorial staff. Last February he had in that magazine a ten column article entitled "Woman's Rights," but the only right considered was that of the suffrage. The article was such an excellent exposition of the attitude of women who do not wish to vote that the Anti-suffrage association ordered copies for distribution. In this article he said again, "In our western states where the suffrage has been granted to women I am unable to see that any great difference has been caused as compared with neighboring states."

And yet just four months after this publication, when Mr. Roosevelt had definitely decided to make the contest for the presidential nomination, all his scruples about forcing suffrage on a hostile and indifferent majority vanished in thin air because a million and a half already had votes and the colonel wanted them, and he knew they wouldn't stand for any nonsense about a referendum.

LIGHT ON ANCIENT PANIC ARGUMENT

History Demolishes Republican Claim That Democrats Make Hard Times.

1893 WAS UNDER HIGH TARIFF

Every Panic Since the Civil War Has Been a Republican Panic—Lessons
From 1907 Upheaval.

The enemies of Democracy are making their anticipated and regularly recurring howl—they are predicting hard times if Woodrow Wilson is elected president on a Democratic tariff revision platform.

The Republicans are claiming all credit for present prosperity.
A glance backward will be worth while at this time.

Every panic since the civil war originated and developed under Republican rule.

The Republican campaign textbook of 1904 devoted much space to the many business disasters occurring from July, 1893, to November, 1894, intending the public to attribute them to the inauguration of President Cleveland in March, 1893. But the Republicans fail to refer to the fact that the Republican tariff law was in force during more than twelve of the sixteen months of greatest business disasters. This fact must be remembered—the McKinley tariff bill became a law Oct. 6, 1890, and the first indications of the 1893 panic were seen Nov. 11, 1890, scarcely more than thirty days after the Mc-Kinley law was passed, and the panic reached its worst stage in 1893 and early in 1894, during which time the McKinley law was in full force.

Millions Lost Their Jobs.

It may be recalled, too, that the panic of 1873 under Republican rule and in a period of twelve years of high tariff taxation, was most disastrous.
It continued five years, 3,000,000 workingmen were thrown out of employment and bankruptcy ran riot.

In 1890 the McKinley high tariff bill was passed, and there were 10,673 failures, followed by 12,394 in 1891. The tariff was raised to nearly 50 per cent, but wages stood still or declined while the cost of necessities advanced.

The most serious labor troubles in the history of the United States have occurred under Republican high tariffs.

Some Lessons From 1907.

The Republican panic of 1907 furnished another forceful refutation of the Republican claim that Democratic administration and hard times, lower tariffs and panics have been co-existing.

In 1907, in the midst of prosperity, thousands of leading banks, with hundreds of millions on deposit, suspended cash payments. The trouble began as a result of a struggle between great New York financial institutions for business.

The New York Post in October, 1907, said:

Condemn Themselves.

"The certain and significant thing is that it will be known as a Republican and high tariff panic. Protest as Republicans may, they will be held responsible. Out of their own mouths the Republican party and the Dingley-ites will stand condemned. They fixed in 1896 the standard by which they cannot escape being judged. In the party platform of that year they referred to the panic of 1893, and the hard times following, squarely to charge up the entire accountability to the party in control of the national government, and the political inference was stated with merciless logic:

"Every consideration of public safety and individual interest demands that the government be rescued from the hands of those who have shown themselves incapable of conducting it."

"Now, what are the Republicans hanging to do when the Democrats hand them back their poisoned chalice?
* * * A great emergency has come and the high tariff is seen to be of no avail whatever. It was to keep us all rich and prosperous."

"Because the country has just got over the results of a Republican panic the president and his friends are urging us to perpetuate the Republican administration," says the Philadelphia Record.

Business Depression.

"As soon as business was checked five years ago the steel corporation, which was encouraged by Mr. Roosevelt to swallow the Tennessee concern, then its most formidable potential competitor, drew its fires and threw about half its workmen out of employment. Other industries did much the same thing. * * * There was an extensive stoppage of mills in Philadelphia.

"The Republican candidate for congress in the Kensington-Richmond district is using the 'soup houses of 1893' as a means of scaring the wage earners from voting the Democratic ticket.
Those soup houses existed under the McKinley tariff. But there have been more recent ones. After 1907 there were soup houses in the Kensington-Richmond district, and everybody who was charitably disposed was begged for contributions to feed the people who were out of employment."

Homesickness Spoils Photographs.

Aunt Maria thought, and so did her relatives in the big city, that the photographer was unparadoxically discourteous. For three successive days he refused to take Aunt Maria's photograph. On the fourth day he told why.

"In justice to her," he said, "I do not want to take her pictures now.
She is too homesick. Most out-of-town people want to be photographed while in the city. If they are longing for home I put them off with one excuse or another until the homesickness wears off.

"If you want your aunt's pictures to turn out well, just hunt up some one from her home town who happens to be visiting here at present and bring him here so she will meet him unexpectedly. The meeting will put sparkle and animation into her face, and neither she nor I will be disappointed with the photographs."

You Want the Best— Not the Cheapest

Flanders "20" Roadster, $750

Don't be alarmed if somebody tells you you can buy an automobile for less money than the $750 Studebaker-Flanders "20." You can, but you better not. The Flanders "20" corresponds point by point with the best and highest priced cars sold. Cheaper cars at every vital point are built on ideas long ago discarded for good cars. Don't take our word for it. Make comparisons and see.

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a marvel—a high grade modern car at a low price. If you pay less you buy much less. And the cheaper car today will cost you far more in the long run. The competing car isn't sold which the Studebaker Corporation, the greatest automobile manufacturers in the world, couldn't reproduce for less money; but we won't build a cheap car, because the name "Studebaker" means the best for your money.

If you are content with a car that runs today and dies tomorrow, don't buy the $750 Flanders "20." It will wear for years. Remember this—the Studebaker-Flanders "20" will outwear 2 to 1 any other car under $1100 and give you double satisfaction, confidence and comfort into the bargain.

shows that there are votes to be had, not for the asking alone, but by simply sending in your name. As soon as your name appears in the column of contestants votes will come in for you from all over your district, not alone from friends, but from strangers as well, who are interested and desire to help someone in their district to win. So enter your name at once so as to be on the list at the earliest possible date—it may mean a number of votes for you.

Persons living away from Paris need not hesitate to send in subscriptions secured by them, as we will issue receipts for the money sent and mail the votes to the contestants for whom they are intended, or else to the subscriber, whichever may be desired. Those living at a distance will receive the same attention, and their interests will be as carefully looked after as those living within a stone's throw of The News office. The contest is for Paris and vicinity and not for any one section, and candidates in the districts furthest from the office may rest assured that they will be treated as fairly as those living close by.

VOTES NOT TRANSFERABLE.

A number who have withdrawn from the contest in the past have requested that their votes be transferred to one of their friends in the contest. This, of course, has not been done. All votes issued on subscriptions MUST bear the names of the contestant for whom they are to be voted before they leave this office. No blank votes are issued and votes once issued to a contestant cannot be transferred under any circumstances, to another. If votes were issued and given out on subscriptions without the name of the person for whom they were to be voted written thereon, they could be transferred without any alteration or sold, and thereby give some contestant an undue advantage. Therefore votes issued on subscriptions will always bear the name of the contestant for whom they are to be voted before they leave the office, and under no circumstances will votes of any kind be transferred to another than the contestant for whom they have been issued.

SHE WAS WILLING.

If you're going to be a candidate, be one. Don't be ashamed of it. Don't go on record as being in the "receptive" class. Strong characters, the successful men and women of this age, are not tucking themselves away in some dark corner awaiting the arrival of some Columbus to discover their talents. Active, aggressive, concentrated energy is the fabric of which success is woven in this hustling, turbulent old world.

"Oh, to be sure, I'd take one of the prizes and be awfully glad," gurgled a vivacious little candidate to the Campaign Manager this week. "You may just leave my name in the list and if my friends care to vote for me I will certainly be most happy, but, why, I just simply couldn't ask any one to support me."

GET BUSY NOW.

Now what do you think of that as a manifestation of the old axiom of "Spirit willing but flesh is weak"? Willing to take a magnificent prize on a silver platter and garnished with the water cress of sweet friendship, but unwilling or unable to turn a hand to further the cause which would bring honor and profit to her. Again, and in glaring capitals, "DON'T BE A RECEPTIVE CANDIDATE."

Regret for the mistake of yesterday is vain and is the recourse of the weakling: "I'll do it tomorrow" is a laudable spirit, but "Do it now" is much better and is the very essence of wisdom. So get busy—RIGHT NOW.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Cooking under modern methods and conveniences is made so attractive the whole family is becoming interested.

"These biscuits are delicious; this cake is excellent," says the father. "I made them," says the daughter, and both father and daughter beam with pleasure.

Royal Baking Powder has made home baking a success, a pleasure and a profit, and the best cooking today the world over is done with its aid.

Under Civil Service.

President Taft has signed an executive order, putting 5,000 fourth class postmasters in the classified service. The execution of this order will put every fourth class postmaster in the United States under the civil service, 5,000 having previously been put in the classified list by the President. While postmasters in the designated class will be taken care of under the order, unless proved unfit, vacancies in the future will be filled by the Civil Service Commission upon reports of postoffice inspectors.

Warehouse Ready December 1.

With the view of having the building of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company ready to open for business by December 1, work on the immense structure in Barnes Addition is being pushed with all haste and a large number of workmen are engaged in its construction. The steel work has all been placed in position and a force of carpenters are laying the flooring of the second story of the building and placing the roof timbers in position. A representative of the American Tobacco Company was here this week and made arrangements with the company for storage room in the basement for its purchase. This move assures the success of the new venture as the warehouse officials have the assurance not only of the American Company, but from several other concerns that a large force of buyers will be maintained in this city.
